The body was shipped to Sturgis, Mich. Thursday night, Mr. McKinley and the two children accompanying the remains.

Mr. McKinley is very thankful to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heiser and to his relatives, Ralph Fair and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fair, for their many acts of kindness shown to Mrs. McKinley during her illness.

CITY SCHOOLS' "EXHIBITION" DAY TO BE JUNE 2

Friday afternoon, June 2, has been set aside as school exhibition day. On that afternoon both the Emerson and Brannen schools will be thrown open to the public for an inspection of the work done by the pupils during the past term. Each room will have its walls decorated with the work of its respective class, and the citizens are urged to attend and inspect the work.

Both schools will be open during the noon hour to give the business men and women who do not have much time during the afternoon, an opportunity of criticizing the work and of offering any suggestions they may see fit.

Refreshments will be served during the afternoon in the domestic science department at Emerson school.

The schools will be open to the public from 12 noon until 4 p. m.

NOW, REALLY LADIES, YOU SHOULDN'T HAVE DONE THIS

A riot call Saturday night brought City Marshal Neill and Deputy Jim Byrom to a house on Milton road. The officers found two women there in a state of intoxication. There were two men in the place when the officers appeared, Alex Markstrom and an unknown, who escaped by jumping through a window leaving a brand-new Stetson hat behind him. Markstrom was locked up on the charge of resisting an officer, and the two women for being drunk and disorderly. A small quantity of moonshine was found. In police court Tuesday one of the women plead guilty and was fined. The case of the other was continued until Saturday at 10 o'clock on account of the absence of her attorney. Markstrom was fined $25, which he paid.

EVANGELISTS HAVE CHANGED LOCATION

The gospel meetings that have been conducted by Evangelists Adams and Simmons, in a tent at the corner of Park and Birch, has been discontinued owing to the cold evenings, and a building has been rented, and is now being used for this purpose, on N. Beaver, next door to the Bon Ton bakery. In spite of the cold there have been twenty-three additions to the contemplated organization.

Tuesday evening Evangelist Adams preached a fraternal sermon to the Elks, and a good audience was present. Mr. Simmons and Mrs. La Rowe sang a duet, an old negro spiritual, that was much appreciated, and Mr. Simmons sang as a solo very effectively, "The Old Ship of Zion." Services will be continued each evening at 7:45. The public is invited.

NANS' CONCERT COMPANY PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE

Nans' Concert company of the Northern Arizona Normal school at Flagstaff, gave a most interesting program last Friday night at the Sultana. This concert company is under the direction of Mr. Ridgely, head of the violin department at the Normal. The work of the chorus was particularly good as they all sang with rhythm and feeling. Needless to say they were charming to look at. The violin numbers by Mr. Ridgely were beautifully played, the G Minor Sonata of Grieg's being seldom heard in its entirety.

The readings by Miss Dewey added a very pleasing variety to the program and were thoroughly appreciated. The gipsy dance by the Misses Catherine Beckwith and Lucretia McMullen was very graceful and captured the heart of the audience immediately.

Prof. McMullen, president of the Normal, is to be highly commended for entering music to his curriculum. The entertainment cleared $36 for the athletic fund of the Williams school. Come again Flagstaff Normal. We like to see and hear you. — Williams News.

EXTRA GOOD VAUDEVILLE ORPHEUM MONDAY NIGHT

The bill for Monday night has four well-balanced and entertaining acts. Gerald and Griffin in their original singing, talking and piano novelty are a bright spot. Walker and West, in "After the Show," will have no trouble in gathering laughs from their first entrance until the final curtain, with their up-to-the minute material and fast patter. Another cleverly presented comedy novelty brings the Royces in "At Spring Valley," which is a new idea in variety. Juggling Mathieu with his juggling and manipulation act rounds out this well-balanced and entertaining bill.
